

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Women of Action Luncheon event offers a unique and targeted avenue to reach a group of well-connected professionals and community leaders. It provides a way for individuals and corporations to be involved with a nationally branded organization's highly visible campaign, while allowing clients and employees an opportunity for social interaction and networking.

Please note:

All items above have internal deadlines. Sponsor's name will only appear on the items that have not yet been printed at the time sponsorship is pledged. A significant portion of sponsorship is tax deductible as a charitable contribution. Sponsorship does not connote that the Multiple Sclerosis Association of America recognizes superiority in products or services provided by the sponsoring entity over other entities providing like or similar products or services.

The MSAA Women of Action Luncheon will be held on November 1, 2019 at the Westmount Country Club in Woodland Park, NJ. The proceeds help to fund various programs and services for people with multiple sclerosis and their families.
